FOSTER PROUD OF HIS STUDENTS

CRITTENDEN BOYS AT ELKTON
GOOD AT FOOTBALL.

Also Commended by the Head of the School as Being Regular
"Good Players."

Mr. Richard A. Foster, headmaster of the John Locke School, at Elkton, Ky., himself a former Crittenden county boy has written the Press as follows:

"I just want to say a word in regard to the quality of boys you sent up to us from Crittenden this year."

In all you sent us six boys: M. V. Nunn, Charles Hughes, Lacy Cook, Frank Phillips, Oral Flagg and Roy Flannery. They are every one of them genuine fellows. They know what it is to have the school spirit and stick by the school. They are loyal to their duties and execute them promptly.

Five of these boys have played on our football team and four of them have played in practically all the games and on the afternoon of November 18th these four boys played a great part in making us victorious by a score of 18 to 0 over the Clarksville High School team in a high school with more than 100 students. This is the second time we have defeated them. The week before we defeated Franklin High School by the score of 26 to 6.

Charles Hughes of near Weston a first year man here was captain of the team that has made us victors. Besides that he got away with the ball in the Clarksville game in the last two minutes of the game and made another touchdown. Furthermore, Charlie has been on our honor roll every week and every month since he came here to school which signifies that he has made above 90 average.

Oral plays right end and he has always been on the spot when it comes to catching a forward pass. Roy plays right tackle. It is interesting to see Roy and Oral do team work or to watch Oral put his younger brother on the back when he has made a proper play. Roy sure has nerve and he showed it by the way he backed up against that big Clarksville man.

Frank is left tackle and he is one of those fellows who will never quit. He will stay right with the bunch, win or lose. And he never becomes impatient or discouraged. Everybody likes him.

"M. V." got hurt in a hard fought game early in the season and could not play for several games, but he's always there with the "pep" and spirit to see his team win out. Had he not gotten hurt five of the eleven on the team would have been Crittenden county boys. He never stands back at anything, but is always ready to help whether it be his teachers or his team. We are counting big on him.

Lacy is the funny one—a general favorite among the boys. He has become a great tennis fan too. Most any time when it is not raining and he has some time off you can find him at tennis. I was about to forget to tell you that Lacy got a prize this year for having the neatest kept room. When his mother finds that out I know she'll want to make a horse girl out of him when he gets home. He's pretty good at his books too. He generally reads a little Caesar for me when I call on him. I notice.

"M. V." and Lacy eat at our table and we have lots of fun when the jokes get going, and we never have to mention table manners to them. In short we are proud of them all."

RICHARD A. FOSTER

Good Meeting at Whontcroft.

Rev. W. T. Hickey and Virgil Stone closed last week a great meeting at Whontcroft. There were 50 professions of faith and a general religious uplift.

DIPHTHERIA WARNING

Diphtheria is reported as existing in more than half the counties of Kentucky. It is an epidemic in several of them. This is not a cause for senseless alarm but for intelligent action. More than half the 249 deaths which occurred from the disease last year were in children whose parents failed to call a physician during the first three days of the sore throat. The greatest American authority speaking of diphtheria anti-toxin says:

"When this remedy is properly used on the first day of the appearance of the membrane in the throat, there are no deaths from diphtheria. When delay in its use extends to the second day the death rate runs from five to ten per cent, when it extends to the third or fourth day, it runs up to thirty forty and even fifty per cent."

The following definite suggestions are offered by the State Board of Health to teachers, parents and guardians for the suppression of diphtheria:

When a child has a sore throat it should be excluded from school, kept at home in bed, separated from other children, and the family physician called. This is essential if there are whitish spots in the throat. Specimens should be taken by the physician and examined in approved laboratories or sent to the State Health Laboratories at Lexington or Louisville for free examination. If the case is at all suspicious antitoxin should be administered at once, and from 7500 to 10000 units if seen 5.000 units if seen on the first day, later. This dose should be repeated in six hours if the membrane is not getting smaller. Antitoxin is furnished by the State Board of Health at greatly reduced prices to physicians and Boards of Health.

FORMER MARION GIRL TO WED.

We clip the following from the Joplin, Mo. Globe:

Mrs. G. E. Grissom, thirty-second and Moffet avenue, entertained with a party Tuesday afternoon and announced the approaching wedding of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Grissom to Mr. Ous Reynolds. The wedding will be held December 17. The announcement was made upon the birthday of the bride-to-be. Plans for the afternoon entertaining and the decorations of the home were made and carried out by members of the Crochet Club, of which Mrs. Grissom is a member. The house was attractively arranged with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums in yellow and white. In one corner of the dining room the hundred shower box was displayed under a pretty canopy of autumn leaves. Festoonings of yellow and white in crepe paper were used about the rooms extending from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms. During the afternoon little Miss Glyda McGarn passed announcement cards in the colors. They were unique in the form of two hearts, each heart being mounted with a picture of the bride and groom-to-be. Upon the arrow, which pierced the hearts, was the date, December 17. Little Misses Barbara Cope and Evelyn Grissom served the luncheon at the close of the afternoon. It was in three courses and the yellow and white color idea was carried throughout the menu. At the close of the afternoon little Miss Glyda McGarn furnished a large doll cart into the room filled with a shower of miscellaneous gifts from Miss Grissom's friends. The cart was decorated in yellow and white and the presents were presented in a pleasing manner.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Grissom is remembered by many of our citizens, however only as a little girl, as she left here with her parents about twelve years ago. G. E. Grissom is a son of John H. Grissom of Marion, and learned the printers trade here in The Press office, where he worked for many years and was foreman at the time he resigned to seek his lot with the people of Mississippi.

The two banks of Providence have consolidated and the new corporation is first of January.

NINE YEAR OLD HERO.

James D. Carman, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carman, got his right hand badly burned last week as a result of saving his little sister Louise from being severely burned. The children were burning leaves in the lot back of the house when Louise's clothing was caught by the flames. She became frightened and started to run to the house, but James D., seeing what had happened and knowing that she could not reach the house before being badly burned, caught her, threw her down and rolled her over and over on the ground thus extinguishing the flames. He had been taught at school that this was the thing to do, and did not hesitate to do it.

Louise was not injured at all but James D.'s hand was so badly burned it had to be cared for for several days.

Lieutenant Begue Resigns.

Lieut. John Harvey Begue, who has resigned his post as commanding officer of the P. S. Chemical Plant at Saltville, Va., and has been honorably discharged from the army, has accepted a Fellowship with the Mellon Institute, University of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Begue, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blue, will join the lieutenant shortly.

Sold Out.

James H. Moore has sold his interest in the store of Stone & Moore to H. V. Stone. Mr. Stone will conduct the business in the same location.

BAPTISTS HEAR NOTED SPEAKER

DR. M. P. HUNT OF LOUISVILLE
THE SPEAKER.

Final Drive on for the Seventy-Five Millions They are Asking For.

Dr. M. P. Hunt of Louisville, Ky., spoke at the First Baptist church last Sunday to a crowded house. There were several visitors present from other Baptist churches, who are greatly interested in the campaign.

Dr. Hunt was at his best, his arguments were logical and convincing. His congregation was in tears much of the time while he was speaking.

Pastor Trotter is quite sure that his people will oversubscribe their quota. The first church to put on the campaign in the Ohio River Association was Crooked Creek, two miles from Marion. They went over the top last Sunday night. Rev. H. C. Paris preached at the close of the service in Marion, Rev. J. B. Trotter and Judge Carl Henderson motored out and made speeches on the campaign. The congregation subscribed more than their quota.

Two churches in Louisville on last Sunday oversubscribed their quota by thirty per cent—good example for others.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The grand jury was dismissed on the fourth day of court after finding 14 indictments. Two indictments were returned against Wm. Sisco, one for keeping a disorderly house and the other for adultery. In the former he was tried and fined $200. The latter he was fined $50.

Four cases for divorce have been tried, as follows: Jesse Cosby vs. May Cosby, Ruth Brown vs. Foster Brown, Lizzie F. Daniels vs. H. H. Daniels, Charlie James vs. Anne and W. H. Turley vs. Lola Turley. Judgment was ordered in each case for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Sallie Alvis won her suit against the Woodmen of the World for her husband's insurance.

The petit jury was dismissed Friday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING.

The Sunday School convention of Crittenden County met at Piney Fork Church last Saturday with a splendid attendance, with G. M. Travis, President, presiding. The convention opened by song by Piney Fork choir.

Rev. W. T. Oakley, P. M. Woodall, E. F. Dean and W. J. Hill made addresses on the different topics. W. J. Hill was elected president and Paul Travis, secretary, for 1920.

The ladies had prepared a bountiful dinner.

Heard Mines Reopen.

The Heard Mines of the Hurricane section which have been suspended for some months have again resumed operations.

THE COLYUM

Not because of any sympathy for the long suffering readers of the Press that the Polym has been missing for the past few weeks. I have been so all fired busy on this machine setting the type for a big book we are producing that I have not had the time to inflict you with the shortcomings and longings of anybody. Look out now though.

Headline in an Oklahoma paper "City Council Gets Down to Business." I suggested to Mayor C. W. Haynes last Monday that the very same thing would look mighty fine in the Press.

Every time that this newspaper has to pay an insurance premium I have to think in figures that would remind you of John D.'s income tax.

Which is to remind you that a system of waterworks in Marion would save us all a lot of money but the insurance companies.

But who in blazes has any sympathy for an insurance company?

But there are sure some live insurance agencies in this little old town. They are the best advertisers in Marion with the exception of Jas. H. Drme the Strand Theatre and Guy Rivers.

Speaking of live ones you will have to go a long ways to find 'em that has anything on J. E. Hillyard at Fredonia. And he sure does a big hardware business too—and is going to do a bigger business—he is now one of our regular advertisers.

When a man gets satisfied he would do his neighbors a favor by leading a funeral procession and thus getting out of their way—for his days of usefulness are sure past when he reaches that stage.

If your competitor advertises—you don't have to—you can quit business.

Aunt Polly Jane Hill says that she has been trying to get her name in the paper for years and hasn't succeeded yet. After anybody has lived with Uncle Billy Joel for more than fifty years she is sure entitled to a lot of consideration.

About the only expense Marion has for not having waterworks is to be different. Mighty few places of one half the size of Marion without 'em.

A lot of people poke fun at Kuttawa—and there are parents living right here in Marion that were horn since Kuttawa put in her water system.

And it is a safe bet that four times as many people pay an income tax here than in Kuttawa—not to mention those that don't.

Has any one heard anything of our road bond issue?

There are many things to be thankful for this year.

Back during the late lamented—by a good many—political campaign Congressman Hefflin made a speech somewhere in Marion and the Press didn't mention the fact of his being here in its news columns. We can hardly be blamed though because not a word was said to us about the affair until a couple of weeks afterwards. We want to print the news, but how on earth it can be done without knowing of it is beyond our ken.

Anyway the city council is having some broken rocks scattered over the streets—it was badly needed.

The Press is still strong to good roads—everywhere—and in Crittenden especially.

Henry & Henry have plastered the upper story of the Concrete building and Drs. Clements, Perry and Moreland and Vernon Oakley are occupying there.

JAMES M. LAMB PASSES AWAY

WAS WELL KNOWN AND HIGHLY RESPECTED.

Funeral Services at Sugar Grove—
Wife and Two Sisters Survive Him.

James M. Lamb, a good citizen and farmer of the Tribune section died November 19th, 1919 at his home after many years of affliction. He was buried at Sugar Grove cemetery the following day. The attendance at the funeral showed the high esteem in which he was held by the people who knew him.

He was born near where he died on March 22, 1848 and was married to Tressie Brantley 51 years ago last June. He was a successful farmer, good neighbor and churchman. Was a member of the Methodist church. He leaves his good wife well cared for.

Mr. Lamb is survived by his wife and two sisters, Mrs. G. C. Baker and Mrs. G. Boyd of Caldwell county. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. F. Hogard.

THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher is one of the real stars of the lecture platform. "Thomas Brooks Fletcher," says Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, "is one of the most powerful orators of our time. He is not the old type of platform entertainer. He entertains but he also has a powerful message, and knows how to deliver it. People want to hear about the things that are being done and need to be done in this country, and that is what Fletcher is telling them about, and he is telling it in a way that commands attention, provokes thought and stimulates men to action. He leaves the impress of his message upon every community." Mr. Fletcher comes with a reputation of being a dramatic orator. It is said that he dramatizes his message by an intensity of energy which holds his audiences from the very start.

Writing of Mr. Fletcher to the committee in charge of the local course the Relpath Bureau, through which Mr. Fletcher was secured, says: "It is difficult to write of Fletcher without using superlatives. He is one of the biggest men Relpath has ever had on the platform. His personality is such that, to put it briefly, he simply must be heard to be appreciated. No one can use the right word to describe Brooks Fletcher and his lecture. When you have told all about him you find that what you have said is inadequate."

Mr. Fletcher is a newspaper editor. He lives at Marion, Ohio, and is editor of the Marion Tribune.

THE CRITTENDEN PRESS

DECLAMATORY CONTEST A BIG SUCCESS.

On Saturday night, Nov. 22, the Sixth Annual Declamatory Contest, in Division No. 2, was held at Hurrican church. The crowd that gathered from all over this quarter of the country to hear these young people put forth their best efforts was certainly proof enough that school enthusiasm can be aroused, even in Crittenden county, if there is anything on to be enthusiastic over.

With Mrs. Herschel Franklin at the piano, the contestants marched in, led by Miss Bertha Akers, of Forest Grove, who won second honors in the last Contest held (the winner of the first honors being absent). Miss Akers, as President, directed the following program, which was delightfully rendered:

Invention, Rev. Crowe.
"Ann Jemima's Courtship"—Lettie Holloman from Brown.
"The Stranded Ship"—Catherine Beard from Helron.
"The Woeing of Miss Wuppert"—Ernestine Traylor from Dean.
"Anybody want this Little Boy"—Jewel Graves from Forest Grove.
"The Christmas Present, and what Came of It"—Marie Moore from Glendale.

"Tim Went Home"—Thos. Lawry from Tolu.
"An American Prayer"—Mary Ava Hamilton from Caney Fork.
"Sergins and the Lions"—Dorrie Alvis from Fords Ferry.
Miss Jewel Hill, E. Jeffrey Travis and Prof. Umberto, judges, after a few minutes deliberation awarded the gold medal to Miss Jewel Graves from Forest Grove and the silver medal to Miss Marie Moore from Glendale.

This is the second silver medal that has gone to Glendale school, while she has one gold medal to her credit. Forest Grove has three times in succession proven a winner honors once. Miss Emma Terry has with first honors twice and second taught this school for a number of years.

While there were only two medals to be won, yet such of these young people was a winner—chosen by their respective districts because of their well earned ability to represent the best in that school. They certainly acquitted themselves creditably in every way, and their schools are proud of them.

MARRIED.

Miss Nellie Young of Mexico, Ky., and Mr. H. C. Brooks of Little Rock, Ark., were married November 6 in Little Rock.

The bride was well known in this section, having gone to school here and in Fredonia, and visited in Marion a number of times. She is a highly respected young lady and numbered her friends by the acquaintances.

Mr. Brooks is printing clerk in the state auditor's office in Little Rock and a most excellent gentleman.

Quiet Wedding.

Miss J. M. Cox of Marion and W. A. Seymour of Blackfoot were quietly married on November 13th by the Rev. Ed. Eaton at his residence.

MARION BOY WEDS LEXINGTON GIRL.

Miss Hazel Virginia Beckett and Mr. W. H. Rochester were married Saturday, November 15 at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. J. Spencer, 131 Walnut street, Lexington, Ky.

Miss Grace Beckett and Mrs. J. C. Talbot, sisters of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Havely and Mr. S. L. Bell witnessed the wedding.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mrs. F. E. Beckett of Lexington, and is quite a favorite in the younger set. She has for a time been bookkeeper for the Wolf & Wile store, Lexington.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Rochester, of this city, is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and for two years has been doing government work. Mr. and Mrs. Rochester are now at home to their friends at the home of his father. They probably will leave here in the spring.

H. S. Wheeler and wife left last Friday to visit their daughter in Hildesway, Ill. Then to Mount Vernon, Ill., to visit his brother, J. A. Wheeler.

J. C. Elder and son, who has the contract to rebuild the Methodist parsonage are progressing splendidly. The short will soon have a commodious home.

Mayor Haynes new bungalow is rapidly taking on the appearance of a desirable residence.

Many trucks and wagons are now delivering spar for shipment.

are more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other places put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed all kinds of medicines, and by constantly failing to cure with them, they have made it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. The only reliable medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional medicine. It is taken internally and acts through the blood. It is the only cure of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Remedy fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
